Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In ancient times, hospitality was considered a sacred duty. The visitor who requested assistance was viewed as a living reminder of Israel's former struggle as enslaved strangers in Egypt. In the early church, the one knocking at the door was regarded as the Son of God coming to make his dwelling in the home. The author of the first reading illustrates the fact that generous hospitality will not go unnoticed; God in his magnanimous generosity shows himself the ultimate host and care-giver.

In the second reading, Paul speaks of the mystery of baptism whereby believers enter into the death and rising of Jesus so as to live a new life.

In today's gospel, Jesus impresses upon his disciples the importance of hospitality. Hospitality appears to be the standard by which individual futures will be decided.

Excerpt from National Catholic Reporter Publishing Co., Inc, WELCOMING THE MESSAGE AND THE MESSENGER, Patricia Datchuck Sánchez.

Sunday Streaming Mass

Our parish will offer an on-line celebration of the Sunday Mass on June 28th at 10:00am.

To view the Mass, please visit our Facebook page

<https://www.facebook.com/thomasmorechurch/>

or our Website www.olgcstm.org (YouTube).

We encourage you to access the on-line remote-worship resources that are available to you.

Our virtual Sunday Liturgy has been very successful with literally hundreds of viewers tuning in every week.

It has provided a spiritual connection with our parish during those months when we have not been able to worship together. That has all been possible because of the dedicated service of Omar Tungekar, one of our young parishioners.

Unfortunately Omar will soon be leaving NYC and we will no longer have the use of his services. Still, he is willing to share with anyone who would be willing to continue this valuable ministry some of the techniques he has picked up in the process. All that one needs is a smart phone and the willingness to learn. One need not have any background in video transmission. If you would wish to continue this ministry to your fellow parishioners please call the Parish Office at Our Lady of Good Counsel (212-289-1742) or at St. Thomas More (212-876-7718).

New York Common Pantry – Food Drive

As a community we are facing unprecedented circumstances, which have disproportionately impacted the poorer neighborhoods of New York

City. As the number of people out of work increases, the number of people who depend on our pantry for services will continue to increase. Since March 16th the Common Pantry has given out more than 560,000 meals. To help them continue their important work, please consider participating in their Amazon Food Drive.

To participate please use the following link

At this time they are especially in need of rice and pasta. Thank you for your continued efforts to help our neighbors in need.

Let us keep in touch with those most at risk (by phone) and keep each other and our world in prayer during these challenging times.

DEVELOPMENTS AT OLGC

If you think it is easier to hear inside the church at Our Lady of Good Counsel, it is not because your hearing has improved, but rather a new sound system was installed in recent months. There may still be some “dead spots,” so please let the Parish Office be aware if you have noticed any.

Also, the chapel at Our Lady of Good Counsel has been painted and repaired. It will reopen for daily mass once the social distancing requirements are lifted.

We still need your support

Because of the ongoing health emergency the Archdiocese of New York has directed us to cancel all Masses in our parish. And although we support this decision to help keep our Parishioners, Clergy and Staff as healthy as possible, your support is still needed. To support our church today we urge you to enroll in the We Share collection system. It safe, simple and convenient and it gives you the option to contribute using a debit or credit card or your checking or savings account.
