Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time challenge all the faithful—and especially the leadership — to live an authentic faith. The first reading, taken from the book of the prophet Jeremiah, contains Jeremiah's prophecy for a coming messianic reign. Those whom God had appointed as shepherds of Israel failed in their duty, and Jeremiah foretold that God will appoint a messianic king from the line of King David.

In his Letter to the Ephesians, Paul writes about the saving effects of "the blood of Christ." Paul speaks of Jesus being "our peace." The peace to which Paul was referring within his historical context was the end of the "dividing wall of enmity" that existed between Jews and Gentiles.

Today's Gospel reading is directly linked to last Sunday's reading where Jesus called and commissioned the Twelve Apostles. Although Mark provides no specific details, it is assumed the apostles were successful in their initial evangelization efforts, and Jesus' response is to offer the apostles the opportunity to retreat: Despite Jesus' attempt to find a deserted place for the apostles, the needs of the people were so great that Jesus' heart "was moved with pity" for the crowds "for they were like sheep without a shepherd."

STM - SPRING SEMI-ANNUAL APPEAL CONTINUES

All STM parishioners should have received a mailing about our Spring Semi-Annual Appeal. Our usual focus is to go beyond simply making up for much lower Sunday collections during the warm months and look to building up reserves for major projects and programs. Please read the letter carefully and respond as generously as you can.

The St. John the Baptist Film Society Presents

Into Great Silence

Sunday, July 18th - 3:00pm

OLGC - Parish Hall - 2 hours and 42 minutes (English)
Into Great Silence is a 2005 documentary film directed by Philip Gröning. Gröning, who with no crew or artificial lighting, lived in the monks' quarters for six months—filming their daily prayers, tasks, rituals and rare outdoor excursions, to create an intimate portrayal of the everyday lives of Carthusian monks of the Grande Chartreuse monastery in the French Alps.

This documentary is a transcendent, closely observed film that seeks to embody a monastery, rather than simply depict one. This film is one of the most mesmerizing and poetic chronicles of spirituality ever created, as it dissolves the border between screen and audience with a total immersion into the hush of monastic life.
