

Mass in Pilling Chapel in October

According to updated university policy, 11:30am Mass will likely be hosted on campus in Pilling Chapel beginning Sunday, October 4! There will be a 30-person limit inside the chapel, and spaces will be given on a first-come first-serve basis, so please arrive early. Extra seating will be set up outside, weather permitting.

Everyone must wear masks during Mass, and various safety protocols will be provided in an upcoming email. If you'd like to be added to our email list, contact our campus minister at tprior@millikin.edu.

Please continue to be safe, and we hope to see you at Mass in a couple weeks!

In-Person Events Begin in October

Millikin plans to allow in-person events starting in October, so we intend to celebrate Sunday Mass in Pilling Chapel beginning Sunday, October 4. We'll also offer various other social, service, and faith-based events as long as they're approved by the university.

Our next bulletin will include more details, such as safety precautions and other upcoming events.

Campus Reflection

Marah Kiefer - Treasurer

When starting college, I wasn't sure what all I wanted to be involved in but was willing to see where I fit best within the campus community. I knew I wanted to see if Newman would be a place where I would fit in because when starting college, wasn't big into my faith. After giving Newman a chance, I realized how welcoming and accepting everyone was to anyone - regardless of differences. Now I'm the Newman Catholic treasurer and am working with the most amazing group of people that I have ever had the pleasure of working with. At this point, acceptance is important, whether it be acceptance of others or acceptance of themselves. Everyone is human and deserves to be treated as such by others along with being able to embrace their unique qualities. Some people only wish for the acceptance they have been denied by others, and as a community, it's important to not let the differences blind you to the fact that each person is still human and a creation of God.
